At its beautiful beach-front facility in Venice, California, Phoenix House of Los Angeles offers a broad spectrum of residential and outpatient services to assist clients in their efforts to break the cycle of substance abuse. Clients in our programs receive assessments to create an individualized treatment plan that serves to elevate each client's strengths as well as identify opportunities for skill development. The Phoenix House major treatment principle is the philosophy of mutual self-help. Working with clients to help them gain control of their lives by developing emotional, cognitive, social, behavioral, and educational skills in a highly structured environment is the essence of the Phoenix House approach.

Some of the services our clients receive include:

- Individual treatment plans based on extensive screenings and assessments
- Residential treatment program of flexible duration, with semi-private 2-3-person rooms, shared restrooms, and views of the beach
- Three nutritious meals per day and healthy snacks
- Individual and group therapy addressing substance abuse issues, relapse issues, anger management, relationships and more
- Mental health services by professional therapists including individual sessions, trauma group counseling, and cognitive-behavioral therapy
- Health maintenance with classes and referrals to community clinics
- Family reunification assistance
- Physical fitness classes with beach volleyball, outdoor sports, and yoga
- Vocational counseling, job readiness and assistance with job placement
- Independent living and life skills development
- Literacy education and a creative writing program
- Assistance with placement in permanent rental housing after completion
- Outpatient services with individual and group therapy in the evenings
- Recovery support, 12-step groups and alumni activities

Phoenix House's Venice program has enjoyed strong community support since its foundation more than 20 years ago. The facility can serve 53 residential clients 20 outpatient clients, and 14 sober living clients. All of Phoenix House's residential and outpatient substance abuse treatment programs are licensed and/or certified by the California Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs and fully accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities, CARF.
